

An Essential Knowledge Update for Administration Personnel in Primary Care, Family Planning and Well Woman Clinics

The aim of this essential knowledge update is to provide administration personnel with the key information needed to support the important role they play in the cervical screening process.

The session will specifically address:

- Recent changes to programme entry
- Website resources
- Relevant standards from the 'Guidelines for Quality Assurance in Cervical Screening'

TIME: 7.00 – 9.00pm

DATES/VENUES:

Please tick (✓) relevant box

| | | |
|-------------|---|--------------------------|
| 17 November | Best Western Ashling Hotel, Parkgate Street, Dublin 8 | <input type="checkbox"/> |
| 18 November | Athlone Springs Hotel, Athlone, Co Westmeath | <input type="checkbox"/> |
| 23 November | Rochestown Park Hotel, Rochestown, Co Cork | <input type="checkbox"/> |
| 24 November | Clarion Hotel, Clarion Road, Sligo | <input type="checkbox"/> |
| 25 November | Stillorgan Park Hotel, Stillorgan Road, Dublin 18 | <input type="checkbox"/> |
| 25 November | Ramada Viking Hotel, Cork Road, Waterford | <input type="checkbox"/> |

Booking is required. Please complete and return to CervicalCheck, PO Box 161, Freepost LK 407, Limerick as soon as possible. Alternatively you can email stu@cervicalcheck.ie or fax the completed form to 061 406555. If you have any queries please contact the Smertaker Training Unit on 061 – 406565/4

Title: _____ Name: _____

Title: _____ Name: _____

Practice address: _____ Practice tel no. _____

If you would like to receive update information via email, please send your practice email address to stu@cervicalcheck.ie